Subject: Withdrawal of Site Plan Amendment – Development Application DA-2402-00

Dear Planning Department,

I am writing to formally request the withdrawal of the site plan amendment associated with Development Application DA-2402-00.

As the applicant, I confirm that no changes are being made to the site at this time. We request that the development application continue as a Conditional Use, as our use of the site does not involve any construction or structural modifications.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please feel free to contact me if any further information or documentation is required.

Sincerely,

Niguss Solomon
